Mr. J. E. McTyier,
124 East 28th Street,
New York City.

Dear Mr. McTyier:

I am sorry to have caused you trouble by neglecting to have the cheque for the 15th of February, 1912 cashed. The cheque is still in my possession. I had overlooked the fact. However, I will attend to it immediately.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
